

HELP WANTED?

These pages are designed so that we can help you and you can help us.....

If you would like us to publish your query and then forward any forthcoming information please contact us through our website CONTACT page.

We are looking for information on Edward Filby and his ancestors.

Edward Filby was born about. 1767 and died 1833 in Methwold, Norfolk, England.

He married Susan Butters on November 30th 1791 in Methwold. Susan was born about 1771 and died in 1822.

We have traced 7 generations back to Edward but unfortunately we seem to have lost the trail. We are still searching, but if anyone has any information that will help us get back further we will be pleased to hear from you.

Anyone Killed in Action

As a mark of respect and to honour our heroes we will add names to our lists of those killed in action during any conflict or war. Please send details through our CONTACT page.

Family Trees

Share your research with us and we will share our findings of your family with you.

We do not upload any of our trees onto the internet and we politely ask that you don't use any information from us in that way either.
